

THIRD PARTY PRIVACY NOTICE

Introduction

In the normal course of our business, we, CEVA Logistics (made up of CEVA Holdings, LLC and its affiliated companies), interact with third parties on a regular basis. Those third parties include customers, vendors, agents, contractors and the like. We are firmly committed to protecting the privacy of those third parties, and to securing the “Personal Data” (any type of information related to identified or identifiable individuals) provided to us. Our goal is to protect, collect, and use that Personal Data as if it is our own. We strive to be globally consistent in how we address privacy and security of that third party Personal Data, and to comply with applicable privacy laws, including the European Union’s Data Protection Directive and the United States Department of Commerce Safe Harbor Framework, as applicable.

As one of the third parties with who we have a relationship, we are providing you with this “Privacy Notice” as we want to advise you of:

1. the type of Personal Data we may collect;
2. how we may use your Personal Data;
3. when your Personal Data may be shared with others;
4. choices you have with respect to the Personal Data you may provide;
5. how we safeguard the confidentiality and security of your Personal Data;
6. ways you can amend the Personal Data you provide us; and,
7. ways you can limit our sharing of your Personal Data.

Collection of Personal Data

As noted above, in connection with your relationship with CEVA, we may collect Personal Data about you and those working for you. The information we collect is entirely dependent on the nature and scope of your relationship with CEVA. Some examples of the Personal Data or Sensitive Personal Data we may need to collect are:

1. names of employees, officers, directors;
2. names of shipping and receiving parties;
3. contact information (e.g., address, phone)
4. financial account information;
5. identity of service locations; and,
6. service level evaluations.

While it may not always be considered Personal Data, we may also maintain information that is pertinent or relevant to your relationship with CEVA and the services you provide. This information may include items you have provided during the provision of services, or through another engagement such as an audit or due diligence process.

Use of Personal Data

Our use of the Personal Data you provide will be in connection with the business purposes for which we’ve collected it (e.g., providing you services, or receiving services from you), and other reasonable extensions of that purpose. That purpose may be specifically identified when we collect the Personal Data, or it may be a purpose which is reasonably implied by the context of our relationship with you or the type of Personal Data collected.

Access to and Amendment of Personal Data

CEVA welcomes amendments and updates from you regarding the Personal Data we maintain about you and those working for you. We reserve the right to deny access to your Personal Data if we believe in good faith that such disclosure is prohibited by law, or if the rights of another individual might be violated by such access. If you wish to amend, update, delete or review your Personal Data, you may submit your request to privacy@cevalogistics.com.

Disclosure and Transfer of Personal Data to Third Party Service Providers

CEVA may contract with other companies or individuals (“Third Party Service Providers”) to perform certain duties on our behalf concerning the collection and processing of Personal Data. In so doing, it may be necessary that we provide Third Party Service Providers with access to Personal Data. Our Third Party Service Providers are required to maintain the confidentiality of the Personal Data and are permitted only to use the Personal Data for the legitimate business purposes as defined by CEVA.

CEVA may also be required by law to provide Personal Data to government agencies and regulatory and legal authorities.

CEVA or a Third Party Service Provider may process your Personal Data via an electronic database which may reside in any country where CEVA conducts business, and be accessed by them wherever they may be located. In order to legally transfer your Personal Data, CEVA has or will enter into corresponding data protection agreements in accordance with relevant data privacy standards with respect to any such transfers.

Retention of Personal Data

CEVA retains the Personal Data we collect for reasonable periods of time based on our relationship with you, the purpose for which the Personal Data was collected, specific retention policies related to that Personal Data, and as otherwise required by law.

Security of Personal Data

CEVA limits access to your Personal Data to authorized employees and our Third Party Service Providers, each of whom is held to CEVA’s standards of privacy. CEVA maintains physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect Personal Data against loss, misuse, damage, modification and unauthorized access or disclosure. We also take appropriate measures, by contract or otherwise, to provide adequate protection for Personal Data that is disclosed or transferred to our Third Party Service Providers, ensuring that our Third Party Service Providers have sufficient legal, organizational and technical procedures in place to protect Personal Data as required by law.

Your Responsibility

If you are a third party who is responsible for handling any Personal Data on behalf of CEVA, it is your responsibility to ensure that the Personal Data you handle remains protected and secure as described within this notice, and as required by CEVA’s policies and applicable privacy law.
